

General Conference Information

Date:

14 – 19 September 2009

Conference venue:

The 14th Metropolis Conference will take place in the Copenhagen Congress Center – Bella Center, Center Boulevard 5, 2300 Copenhagen S, Denmark.

Web: <http://www.bellacenter.dk/bella+center>

Hotel Accommodation

We recommend an early reservation for hotel rooms. Several categories of accommodation have been fixed at highly competitive rates for the conference. Hotel reservations should be made directly by the participants.

Details will be made available on-line on the conference website.

Registration

Online registration will be made available on www.metropolis2009.org in early 2009

Who should attend?

The 2009 Metropolis Conference will be of interest to policy makers, administrators and representatives from non-governmental organisations (NGOs) as well as academic researchers. Metropolis wants to reach everyone with a professional interest in international migration and urban management issues. Graduate students and interested stakeholders in the private sector are encouraged to attend this event.

Funding for Delegates

Participants and workshop presenters are expected to secure their own funding to participate in this event, but a special registration fee will be made available students and delegates from developing countries